

aka red dressing "yfi. Judy J. - 10 June 2012

Grandmother McLeice's Salad Dressing

$\frac{3}{4}$ c. sugar	* $\frac{1}{4}$ t. ground cloves
$\frac{1}{2}$ c. Vinegar	$1\frac{1}{3}$ t. salt
1 c. oil	pinch pepper
$\frac{1}{2}$ c. ketchup	chopped onion
1 t. Worcestershire sauce	2 drops Tabasco, if desired

Put all ingredients in a deep bowl. Beat with electric mixer on medium for 2-3 min. Pour into jars w/ very tight lids. Store in fridge

* essential good on fruit salad + trad. green salad - outstanding on spinach salad!

from Judy J. 10 June 2012 - Serves 4 Emily's Beef Goulash w/ Noodles

8 oz. noodles cooked + drained
3 T. oil
1 # boneless beef chuck, cubed
2 c. thinly sliced onions
1 T. flour
1 T. paprika
1 can (16 oz) tom. purée
1/2 c. water
1 t. salt
1 t. sugar
1/8 t. pepper
1 bay leaf 2 T. butter

Heat oil in a deep heavy pot or dutch oven.
Add beef cubes + onions. Sprinkle w/ flour + cook until lightly browned. Stir in paprika + cook 3 min. Add tom. purée, water, salt, sugar, pepper + bay leaf. Cover + simmer about 1 hour, until meat is tender. Toss hot cooked noodles with butter + serve w/ goulash.
You can also add chopped celery and cooked frozen peas during last 10 mins.
Easy to do ahead of time.