

Refrigerator Rolls

3 C. flour

$\frac{1}{4}$ C. sugar

$\frac{1}{2}$ t salt

$\frac{1}{2}$ pkg dry yeast

1 egg

5 T melted butter

(2)
 $\frac{1}{2}$ C milk

Measure $1\frac{1}{2}$ C. flour + sift with sugar + salt - set aside remaining flour

Heat milk + cool to lukewarm

Mix $\frac{1}{4}$ C milk with yeast. Stir beaten egg - melted butter into remaining milk. Combine egg mixture with yeast & flour dipar cornst. Stir well (looks like thick soup) cover with towel - let - ~~stand~~ 2 1/2 - 2 hr until double. Stir in remaining sugar - with spoon - (too stiff to handle) cover & stir in refrigerator over night Next day cut & bake - Roll dough 1/2" thick - cut into 2 1/2 x 3/4 in strips with sharp knife.

Up upon melted butter place on sheet let rise until double. Bake 400°