

EASY APPLE KUCHEN

350-375°F

1 pkg. yellow cake mix - 1/2 C. shredded cocoa
1/3 C. brn sugar & 1/3 C. white sugar nut
1 t. cinnamon (mix sugar & cinnamon together)
1 egg (beaten)
1 C. sour cream (Mix the sour cream with the beaten egg & add the cinnamon & sugar mixture to this)
1 can (303 size of drained sliced apples
2/3 C. (margarine or softened butter)

Mix yellow cake mix with the softened margarine (cut it in or use a pastry blender/cutter) add the cocoanut--press this into a 13x9x2" pan firmly (build up the sides a little.. (over)

use the apples packed in water and not apple filling -

Place in oven and let bake for 10 min. take out and top with the apples/cinnamon/sugar/egg & sour cream mixture...place again in oven and let bake for 25 min. more at 350°F...Do not overbake.. Delicious... Better the next day when the apples mixture has sort of made the botton crust a little softer...

Elaine, I made this and gave John a piece and he wanted you to have the recipe...I hope you like it.... Norma Carrier
