Tex's Argentinean Beef Sauté (4 servings)

1 lb. lean ground beef
3 med. onions, chopped coarse (1½c)
1 large green pepper, diced coarse (1c)
1t salt
1t basil (or ⅓c fresh basil stirred in just before serving & heated through)
½t pepper
¼t sugar
¼t oregano
⅛t crushed red pepper
3 large cloves garlic, crushed
2T chopped parsley
1 8m. can (8oz.) red kidney beans, drained (reserve liquid)
1 8m. can (8oz. golden hominy, drained

fresh parsley or basil sprig

In large heavy skillet over medium heat brown beef, stirring to break up. Add onions & green pepper. Sauté, stirring occasionally, just until vegetables are tender. Stir in salt, basil, ground pepper, sugar, oregano, red pepper, garlic, chopped parsley, beans & tomatoes. Simmer uncovered, gradually adding about ¼ c reserved bean liquid & stirring occasionally, 10 minutes or until flavors are blended. Garnish with parsley sprigs.

(Serve with a green salad, hot garlic-buttered Fr. bread, a relatively [illegible] red table wine & sliced fresh mangoes)
