Molded Chicken Salad

2 T. unflavored gelatin
½ C. Cold water
¾ C. Mayonnaise or salad dressing
Salt, pepper, paprika, and vinegar to taste
1 to 1½ Cups diced cooked chicken
1 Cup finely chopped celery
½ C. chopped olives
½ C. cooked, diced chestnuts
3 T. chopped pimients
Several sprigs Chopped parsley

Soak gelatin in cold water;

dissolved by placing over hot water and stirring until completely dissolved. Cool slightly, then fold in mayonnaise, salt, pepper, paprika, and vinegar to taste. Add other ingredients and mix well. Turn into oiled mold and refrigerate until congealed. Unmold on bed of lettuce or other greens. Garnish with carrot curls, radish roses, or other colorful vegetables. Yield: 6 servings