

Recipe for: Old Fashioned Tea Cakes

From: The Best Little Cookbook in Texas by Junior League of Abilene

2 cups sugar
1 cup shortening
2 eggs
1 tsp. vanilla
5 cups flour
 $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. salt
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. baking soda
1 Tablesp. baking powder
1 cup buttermilk

Preheat the oven to 350° . Cream sugar & shortening. Add eggs one at a time, beating after each. Add vanilla. In another bowl, sift together flour, salt, baking soda & baking powder; add alternately with buttermilk, beginning and ending with dry ingredients. Add additional flour, if necessary, to make dough stiff enough to roll. Roll out on lightly floured board and cut with cutters. Bake 10 to 12 minutes on an ungreased cookie sheet. (Do not let tops brown; bottoms should be barely golden.) These can be frozen after over Yields: 6 dozen baking; flavor improves if stored.

Maybe decorated for Christmas cookies.

This recipe is over 150 years old.