Curry Chicken In Rice Ring

Continued

Empty the mushroom soup into a saucepan, heat gently and stir well till smooth and creamy; add 1 cup of the hot curry sauce to this and mix, then stir this mixture into the pan of curry sauce, add the cream and heat to blend flavors.

Cook 2 or 3 cups of rice till tender in boiling salted water to cover, drain, rinse in cold water, and pour into a ring pan. Smooth and press it down a little and set the pan over boiling water to keep hot. When the curry sauce is ready, turn the rice ring out onto a hot platter, fill the center with pieces of hot chicken and pour hot curry sauce over the chicken. Serve with various garnishes. Serve a simple green salad, fruit or a coconut cake drenched in freshly grated coconut or baked banana and tea.

Have in separate bowls, green pepper chopped, one of grated or sliced onions, another of chopped peanuts or other nuts, Indian chutney, pickle relish, shredded or grated coconut, chopped hard-cooked egg yolks and whites, chopped crisp bacon, ham, boiled tongue or smoked salmon.
